

VILLA INFINITY - SARDINIA

Situated near the coast of Punta Sardegna in Sardinia, Villa Infinity is a luxury property with beautiful sea views, perfect for a relaxing break with friends and family. The unique circular building sits amidst impeccably manicured grounds, and features a stunning infinity pool. The heated pool is bordered by a spacious solarium deck with sun loungers, making this villa the ideal retreat to top up a tan, catch up on your reading list, have a relaxing swim or enjoy poolside drinks. With its heating system, the pool is a comfortable temperature even if guests wish to swim under the stars or gaze out across the sea at sunrise. Characterised by marvellous granite rocks across the exterior of the property and a splendid view of the sea and the Archipelago of La Maddalena, the villa has a real emphasis on relaxation. The al fresco living and dining areas are perfect for enjoying balmy evenings in good company or hosting moonlit soirees. On cooler evenings, the indoor dining area with vast windows framing the water, allows guests to have the best of both worlds. The kitchen is fully equipped for guests wishing to enjoy a family dinner or host a casual gathering. Styled with a slightly rustic theme, the space features natural wooden accents throughout, giving it a homely atmosphere. The wooden and granite elements continue throughout the property, for a seamless merging of traditional and contemporary design. The bedrooms are decorated in neutral tones, with splashes of colour from pretty throws, and luxurious bedding and soft furnishings. Each room has its own en-suite with all modern conveniences and designs matching the natural décor throughout the villa. With plenty of space, excellent amenities and a calm and relaxed ambience, Villa Infinity is an oasis of peace and tranquillity. The property is the ultimate sanctuary for groups of friends or families to enjoy quality time together on the beautiful coast of Sardinia.

For more information contact www.myprivatevillas.com. Mention Envy Italy and receive an exclusive offer or privilege discount.

VILLA TASCA – SICILY

A noble neoclassical 16th-century palace with a romantic Sicilian garden, Villa Tasca, Palermo's largest and most private residence, is an architectural masterpiece that is representative of Sicilian luxury and antique artwork. Guests who wish to get a taste of the Italian "la dolce vita" surrounded by pastoral frescoes, collectible antiques and a 20 acre park with Victorian-era romantic gardens should look no further. This historic, noble property immersed in a botanical paradise enticed King Ferdinand IV, Queen Caroline and Jacqueline Kennedy to the villa. Wagner, the composer, even completed the opera Parsifal during his stay at Villa Tasca. The estate has a privileged location, situated on the road between Palermo and Monreale, but guests can still enjoy the tranquility of a natural oasis. The sumptuous interiors offer guests a living environment that epit-omises class, elegance and luxurious comfort. There are plenty of places indoors where they can unwind such as the Piano Nobile room – decorated with magnificent frescoes and vaulted ceilings – the reading room, the private reception room and the billiards room. Guests have a unique experience at Villa Tasca, where cooking, culture and history can be combined. The villa's team of staff will ensure that all guests feel pampered, with all their needs taken care of. Moreover, the villa's exquisite open spaces, lush garden and large terraces provide the ideal venue to celebrate special moments such as weddings or other events, small or large.

For more information contact www.myprivatevillas.com. Mention Envy Italy and receive an exclusive offer or privilege discount.

VILLA CAMELIA – CAPRI

This unique property is the only villa on the island with its own private sea access. According to legend, the composer Bizet while vacationing here was so inspired by the sounds of the sea that he composed one of his most famous pieces, Carmen. It is also on this very terrain that Caesar Augustus built his palace by the sea; some of its remains are still visible on parts of the property.

Villa Camelia enjoys an incomparable view of the Peninsula of Sorrento, Mount Vesuvius and the Bay of Naples. Capri, with the port of Marina Grande, Villa Lysis and the townhouses of this village can be seen from the gardens. On the opposite side of the property, the view opens up towards the hillside of Monte Solaro and the bright white Fenicia stairs of Villa San Michele, where the village of Anacapri starts.

Lush gardens and amazing terraces provide space for al-fresco living; wander through the enchanting garden with stone sculptures, pines, oaks and palm trees. A panoramic path leads from the garden down to the sea, passing through a pleasant, wooded area of olive trees and Mediterranean herbs. The path leads to a private sundeck, platform and boat dock. The area is furnished with loungers and umbrellas, while beach towels and cold drinks and snacks can be stocked in the refrigerator and kitchenette located at sea level. Villa Camelia enjoys great common areas where family or friends can gather. All exude elegance and sophistication, from the marble floors, vaulted ceilings, stylish crystal lamps to amazing works of art and antique furniture. On the ground floor, the main hall introduces guests to the ambience with its decorative mosaics and white marble floor. The living room with its fireplace has cosy corners for reading and relaxation and features important works of art, such as the mosaic illustrating the era of Roman Pompeii.

For more information contact www.myprivatevillas.com. Mention Envy Italy and receive an exclusive offer or privilege discount.